

In re Gross,
BUPL No. UPL 92-8 (1993)

Following investigation and report with recommendations by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, and consideration by the Board, it was held that a law student admitted to practice pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 56 (limited practice as legal intern), and who may have been held out as a Delaware lawyer, but who did not give legal advice, was held not to have engaged in the unauthorized practice of law.
